Quincy and Ellie Mae - Home Sweet Home of Their Own!

Hello Everyone!

Remember me? I'm Quincy. You first met me about two years ago when my sister, Ellie Mae, had a very frightening and traumatic experience after being adopted and brought to New Hampshire. You might recall that her newly adopted human, for some strange and unknown reason, abandoned her far out in the country. She was on her own, living in the wild for several days. When those wonderful people from Pope Memorial Frontier Animal Shelter found out about it, it surely didn't take them long to bring me over there to help find and rescue Ellie Mae. As soon as she saw me, she couldn't wait to come over to me and the PMFAS staff person.

That was a very scary time for Ellie Mae, and it's all in the past. I've got some happier news to tell you all about now! Both Ellie Mae and I have found our own forever homes! Yup! That's right! While we did not go to the same home, we each have our own human family to love and our own comfy couches and pillows to enjoy. It's SO wonderful!

Ellie Mae was adopted a couple of months ago and I hear she's doing really well in her new home in a town south of here. She's kind of lucky that way because it's usually a little warmer down there and I hear she has plenty of outdoor space where she can romp around. I think she was a little nervous at first. Who wouldn't be? Going into a new home can be a bit overwhelming sometimes. I think she's very happy now though because they say she's always wagging her tail and she likes to follow her human all around the house and the yard. They say she's great company to her humans. Her family also says that she's lovable and very well behaved. They're very happy with her and they believe that Ellie Mae is very happy with them! Isn't that absolutely wonderful? Sometimes she even gets to ride around in a truck and she really loves that! I think life has become quite awesome for Ellie Mae! She surely deserves it!

I'm so happy for my sister and I'm doing really well too. Just recently, I found a forever home of my own. I'm living in VT with this wonderful human family. I have a new little brother - a Beagle that lives here too - and we get along just fine! We both love to cuddle

Volunteer Spotlight

Readers of The Scoop are well aware that here at PMFAS we value the efforts and generosity of our volunteers. We also acknowledge that it's important to recognize our volunteers and we like to do this by spotlighting someone in each issue of this newsletter. Our volunteers are crucial in helping us fulfill our mission and we know that without them, we could not care for all our furry friends at the shelter. This summer we're spotlighting Kristin and Britton Beswick!

Ten year old Britton and her Mom, Kristin, have been volunteering at PMFAS for over a year and a half. One of the services that Britton really enjoys providing is something called fostering. With her Mom's help, Britton takes Momma cat and her tiny kittens into her home and helps to nurture them, making sure that Mom gets all the healthy food she needs to nurse her babies. She also provides some gentle human contact, keeping Momma cat calm and getting the kittens accustomed to touch and play from humans. Thanks to this special work by Britton and Kristin, it's more likely that these Momma cats and their kittens will be easily adopted into their own forever homes. Sometimes Britton and her Mom foster injured or ill cats that need extra TLC and perhaps some special food or special feeding schedule. Once these cats are well again, they return to the shelter in a healthier condition that helps them to find their own forever homes more easily also!

In addition to helping take care of shelter animals, Britton also helps to care for her own furry friends, a cat and a dog, at her home in Derby. Britton also likes athletics and plays on the Wild Cats soccer team which her Mom helps to coach.

Britton and Kristin, this time the Spotlight is on YOU! We hope you know how much we appreciate all you do! Thank you for the time and energy you spend in helping to care for the cats and kittens at PMFAS and helping them to find their own forever homes!

together on the couch. Imagine that! I have my own couch, my own little brother, and my very own home. It doesn't get much better than this!

It certainly took a very long time and those folks at PMFAS were extremely patient and kind to both me and my sister, Ellie Mae, for over four years. They knew that at some point some loving humans would want us in their own homes, and they were right! We're gonna miss those loving, caring folks at PMFAS and we will always be thankful that such a cozy, caring shelter exists. Our dreams have come true now and Ellie Mae and I each have our own Home Sweet Home!

Thank you Hickok & Boardman Insurance Company!

On June 8, six employees from the Hickok & Boardman Insurance Company in Lyndonville, VT volunteered their morning to help out at the shelter. Many days this spring have been very rainy and June 8 was no exception. With the rain pouring down, work was focused on the inside of the shelter. The biggest task was preparing for the upcoming Town-wide Yard Sale scheduled for June 27. The group graciously spent their time emptying boxes of donated items and efficiently organizing them on tables in the shelter basement, preparing everything for the yard sale. At PMFAS we've always said we are extremely grateful for the volunteer services that we receive. A hearty and heartfelt thank you goes out to these employees from the Lyndonville Office of Hickok and Boardman: Tina Lane, Hilde Desmet, Tim O'Neil, Robin Clairmont, Christie Amstein, Catherine Emert. We certainly appreciate your time and effort in helping us prepare for this day-long fundraising event!
